**UPDATED****

Central High School Begins Meal Distribution, Distribution Discontinued at Krieger Ball Park in Estate Sion Farm – Effective October 13

ST. THOMAS, USVI – The St. Croix Central High School will begin meal distribution and the Rudy Krieger Ball Park in Estate Sion Farm will cease distribution of meals in the Virgin Islands Department of Education's "No V.I. Child Goes Hungry" Feeding Initiative, effective October 13.

Breakfast and lunch may be picked up at all distribution sites beginning at 9 a.m., Monday through Friday, until supplies last. Meals will not be served on holidays or weekends.

Meals are available to public and non-public school students whose schools are providing instruction virtually. Non-public schools operating with students attending in-person classes will continue meal collection/pick-up as normal from their public-school kitchen distribution site.

Parents or guardians picking up meals should note the following:

- Meals are limited to five per person (five breakfast and five lunches)
- A face mask or facial covering must be worn when collecting meals
- Identification is not required at pick-up
